

Philatelists Asked To Give $25,000 To The National War Fund

Under the sponsorship of James A. Farley, former Postmaster General, a volunteer committee of collectors, dealers and philatelic writers has inaugurated a campaign in behalf of the National War Fund. The goal of the National War Fund organization is $250,000,000. Twenty-five thousand goes into $250,000,000 exactly 4,000 times, so it is obvious that American philately is being asked to contribute only a relatively small part of the total. The number of collectors in this country is estimated to be from 7,000,000 to 10,000,000, and the volunteer committee working with Mr. Farley does not anticipate too much trouble in arriving at philately's modest quota in support of this worthy war effort.

Collectors are not going to be asked to surrender cash. What the committee wants are contributions of worthwhile stamps, covers and related material. The committee appeals to collectors to make some real sacrifices—from their philatelic holdings—items of a character which will bring genuinely fancy prices at public sale. Around mid-December the contributed material will be disposed of at an auction to be held in New York, and Mr. Farley will pinch-hit as one of the auctioneers.

Last year the same volunteer philatelic committee put on a similar campaign for the United Service Organizations and at an auction realized about $12,000. This year's drive is not exclusively for USO. The $250,000,000, including philately's $25,000, will be allocated among many organizations.

The committee announces that collectors making donations may, if they choose, specify just which organizations they would prefer their contributions to benefit. Requests such as these will be honored, the donations to be earmarked in advance so there will be no errors.

Donations of philatelic material should be addressed to H. L. Lindquist, publisher of STAMPS MAGAZINE, 2 West 46th Street, New York City.

Philately's volunteer committee has its chairman Emil Bruechig, air mail dealer, who is a past president of the American Stamp Dealers Association. Co-operating with Mr. Bruechig, Mr. Farley and Mr. Lindquist are the following men, all nationally known among the hobby's followers:

Hugh M. Clark, president of Scott Publications, Inc.; Robert L. Graham Jr., president of the Collectors Club and counsel for the A. S. D. A.; Gordon Harmer, Irwin Heimen, Jacques Minkus, John Nicklin, Carl E. Pelander and Nicholas Sanabria, dealers; Norman Serphos, president of the A. S. D. A. and president of the Scott Stamp & Coin Co.; Y. Souren, dealers; Prescott H. Throp, dealer and philatelic author; and four New York newspaper stamp columnists, Franklin R. Bruns Jr., of the Sun, James B. Hatcher of the Journal-American, Ernest A. Kehr of the Herald Tribune and Kent B. Stiles of the Times.

WPB LAWS BLOCK SOME NEW YORK AUCTIONEERS

The activities of several newer auctioneers is about to be curtailed through discovery and reporting of violations of WPB laws. The fact that anyone not publishing catalogues prior to 1941 has no right to do so now. Many of the newcomers, especially those handling the Green auctions, were ignorant of the WPB regulation and went ahead with plans last year and for this year. One of New York's sharper dealers who makes a specialty of making life miserable for his fellow dealers, discovered the law, reported them to Washington and they are being stopped from further activities.

T-Bone Steak With Gravy And Mushrooms No Longer Rationed

Yes brothers, you can get it all at the Postoffice now for only three cents. They call it the Philippine stamp, but why, we do not know. Originally this stamp was announced as a stamp to honor the Philippine people and Government. It comes out as a stamp memorializing the island of Corregidor, where our own men and the Philippines made such a splendid last stand. As a stamp memorializing this event there is little lacking except a decent design, but in so far as a stamp for the Philippines, it lacks everything else that the Overrun Nations series had, primarily, a distinct picture of the Philippine flag and the word Philippines on the stamp.

Our own opinion of this stamp is borne out by letters from others since the stamp has appeared. One correspondent says it looks like a T-Bone Steak with the gravy oozing out and a few mushrooms in the offing. Another says it pictures a big Frog, while one suggests a Lobster and another a dead Jap with his head missing. Whatever anyone wants to call it is O. K. with us, but it takes its place at the total bottom of all U. S. postage issues as about the most poorly designed stamp that has yet been issued in this country and one would have to hunt world issues to find many that would be worse.

Our thanks to Harvey Dolin & Co., of New York, L. W. Staehle, New York, George Williams of Oakland, California, Cachet-Craft Cover Service, of Framingham, Mass., and Sam Avy of Piqua, Ohio, for the splendid first day covers, all of which have cachets that are far more in line than the stamp. From A. B. Jackson of Centerdale, R. I. comes a cover made from a map which pictures the Pacific area, a most unusual and attractive, yet illegal cover.

New Special Delivery Stamps To Bear Same Old Outdated Picture

Announcement by the Postoffice Department is that the new 13c and 17c Special Delivery stamps will bear the same old out of date picture which has been in use on these stamps for far too many years.

This great country of ours seems to be too hard up to stand the expense of a new design. Over in Russia the public are kept pepped up by new stamps at frequent intervals and many of them splendid propaganda pictures and subjects. We here in this country can not stand such lavish use of time and labor, so we are going to have the old stamp redone with a new value.

Collectors wanting these on first day covers will be able to send not more than ten prepared covers to the "Postmaster, Washington 13, D. C." prior to October 30th.

Field Post Stamps Of Germany Come Either Perf. Or Roulethead

Some weeks ago we illustrated the German Field Post stamp which is shown here. The stamp which we had seen from several sources was always a perforated stamp.

We now have a block of six of these stamps which are rouletted in small arcs by what is probably a piece of rule as is used on platen presses for perforating paper.

This block comes from Mr. George W. Clark of Athens, Ohio, who gives us some added information and a translation.

At top, "Zalassung Marke" means "Entering permit stamp." The wording under the eagle is of course, "German Field Post." Our correspondent states that he is advised from his correspondent in France, that the stamps were used from within Germany to Soldiers in the field, but the words "entering permit" would rather indicate that the stamps were used from the soldiers on mail back home.

German Secret Service Priority Mail Stamps

Here we have a new stamp or label which comes from Mr. George W. Clark of Athens, Ohio. Mr. Clark received this label from a correspondent in France who offers the following information. This is said to be a label or stamp used by the German Intelligence Officers on mail and messages back to Germany and is to give the letter postal priority in handling.

The translation of this stamp is as follows: "Heeres" meaning "of the Army" and "Nachrichten" is "news," "Dienst" is "Service." Hence, "Army News Service."

This stamp or label is an Horizontal coil rouletted at the sides, it is printed in green.

Cover Collectors Dream That Page Of Offerings

Having become thoroughly convinced of the widespread interest and demand for covers, Paul F. Goldstein of Brooklyn, N. Y. has decided to vote all of his time to this field. In doing so he cast about for the best outlet through which to make a formal announcement of this fact and decided upon a full page of space in Linn's Weekly Stamp News. The list printed on this page is but part of the immense stock held by Mr. Goldstein. His complete price list in a handy booklet is free to all collectors and is a real guide to cover values for the prices therein are not catalogue prices, but prices at which Mr. Goldstein will supply the covers, thus representing true value. See his page of offers and get this complete list.

SPLENDID CACHET FOR FIRST NATIONAL AIRLINES FLIGHT

Inauguration of the First Flight on A. M. 31, Jacksonville, Fla. to New York, brings a splendidly designed cachet, the work of Mr. F. E. Howe, Senior Revenue Account with the National Airlines at their Jacksonville, Office. The cachet represents Jacksonville with a group of Palm trees and New York with towering buildings. Between the two points are red dots with names of the other cities on the route.

New G. N. R. Overprints On Italian Stamps Come From Cpl. W. Anderson

In our issue of September 21st we illustrated a series of Italian Postage Stamps, those of the double variety wherein half of the stamp is of the regular set of 1929 and the other half of the stamp is a picture of some subject associated with the war effort in Italy. We illustrate the item herewith.

Now comes from Cpl. W. Anderson, somewhere in the Italian war zone, 5 single stamps of the original 1929 set, each of which is overprinted with the letters "G. N. R." as shown in the illustration above. These are Scott numbers 213, 215, 216, 218 and 219. It is very probable that the entire set may come with this overprint.

The letters "G. N. R." are told, stand for "GENERAL NATIONAL REPUBLIC". The overprints are in red or black to match best with the various colors of the stamps.

New French Morocco Air Mail Stamps

From "La Cote Philatelique" a bulletin for stamp collectors issued in Algiers, dated 20th August, we learn of a new set of six large size air mail stamps that have just been prepared for issue in French Morocco.

The stamps picture a plane flying over the desert, with palm trees. The denominations and colors are 50c dark green, 2 franc deep red, 5 franc cyclamen, 10 franc purple, 50 franc black and 100 franc red and green.

It is believed that the 100 franc stamp is with a postal value of but 1.50 franc and that 98.50 francs are for charity. This stamp bears an inscription "Pour L'entraide France" which probably is to commemorate the invasion of France.

SOCIETIES TO AMALGAMATE

The Bureau Issues Association is about to take in the Society of Private Perforations (is that right—Perforations?) The amalgamation of these two organizations will make the Bureau Associations just about the fourth largest philatelic organization in America. S. P. P. created several years ago flamed like a comet across the skies, gathered in many new members and then slowly began to lose members. However with this amalgamation there should be new life and activities and we can look for an announcement of a broad program of activities.

The Old 'Run-Around' Baffles Senator Mead On Red Cross Stamp

The following from the October 1, issue of the Sunday Star of Washington, D. C. tells how Senator Mead has been given the old "run-around" in his efforts to find out why this country can not issue a Red Cross Stamp. This is taken from their editorial columns and shows how mountains are made out of mole hills. But it keeps a lot of people employed.

"Stamp Mystery"
"Even in a democracy, the business of government—the management of public affairs—is a mysterious business. The accuracy of this observation may be tested by any citizen who is willing to spend the time and energy involved in the enterprise. All that he need do is to pick up the telephone, call the Bureau of Internal Revenue and ask: 'Who wrote the text of Form 1040?' Ten or twenty or a hundred persons will be willing to discuss the matter with him. He may talk with them for a week, but in the end he still will not know who prepared the text of the Individual Income and Victory Tax Return over which he labored so ardently last March. Seemingly, nobody is equipped with the information wanted."

"Still more baffling, however, is the experience of Senator James M. Mead of New York in his quest for authorization of a postage stamp to publicize the work of the American Red Cross. Such an issue has been wanted by a considerable number of people ever since the war began in 1939. The late Norman Davis, when he was president of the Red Cross Society, appealed to President Roosevelt for it. His letter was referred to Postmaster General Frank C. Walker, who in turn referred it to Third Assistant Postmaster General Ramsey S. Black, who in turn referred it to Deputy Third Assistant Postmaster General Roy M. North, who allegedly still has it under friendly consideration."

"Meanwhile, hundreds of other letters expressing the same hope for a Red Cross stamp, particularly a stamp in aid of the blood plasma campaign, were written by interested citizens to the President, Mr. Walker, Mr. Black, Mr. North and a long list of other officers who conceivably might be able to wave magic wands over the proposal. Months went by, the file of petitions grew fat—but the desired authorization was not forthcoming. Finally, Senator Mead intervened. He wrote to the President, he wrote to Mr. Walker, he wrote to everybody he could think of who might be helpful. And many of the officials to whom he wrote replied to him. But he still has not found out why the Red Cross stamp remains unauthorized. The Post Office Department has brought out postal labels advertising the trans-Atlantic steamship service and the transcontinental railroad service, the "occupied countries" of Europe, the Philippines, the four freedoms and the United Nations. It is reported that it soon will issue a stamp to "commemorate" the fiftieth anniversary of the motion picture industry. Senator Mead, however, is stumped in his endeavor to get a Red Cross stamp. What bothers him most is that he cannot discover why. Nobody is opposed to the project. Everybody favors it. Yet it does not happen. Mystery prevails."

Why not write and ask Mr. Dewey what he would do about it.

Prices And The Catalogue Part Two

Many dealers claim the catalogue should be published without any prices, but merely with a number of the stamp and a description of the color dates, etc. Wouldn't that be a picnic for dealers and wouldn't prices skyrocket then? Dealers are selling stamps for less than wholesalers, and you can imagine what would happen if the catalogue had no price guide, even though the present prices are not accurate. Prescott Thorp claims that "pressure groups" or committees of philatelic societies bring pressure to bear on the publisher of the catalogue through demanding that the stamps in which they are specifically interested be priced according to their demands and desires. He claims continuance of this policy would bring about the publication of a second catalogue which would bring further chaos to an already badly muddled business. The "already badly muddled" is my opinion, but I agree with Thorp that a second catalogue would be chaotic. I disagree with Thorp that the publisher should be identified with a retail dealer, or that any retail dealer should publish the catalogue. I defy Thorp or any other authority to put his finger on any single dealer who is sufficiently aware of market conditions and proper prices. One has but to send for the advertised price lists from dealers and compare the prices to determine that no two dealers agree on price.

In my estimation H. E. Harris & Co. of Boston and Stanley Gibbons of New York present the two most formidable catalogues which reflect both knowledge and detail of the subject at hand. Both firms bring out their catalogues in several editions per year in order to keep astride of the rise or fall in the market. I think Fritz Billig's catalogue of air mails and covers has value and George Herzog's used air mail price list shows intelligence in thought. None of these catalogues agree with each other in every instance, but these are the catalogues which are most frequently used by other dealers. World conditions make it impossible for any catalogue printed once a year to properly reflect prices. Dealers disagree about prices amongst themselves and we all agree that a catalogue from which a discount is expected by the ultimate consumer is wrong. It all seems confused and the problem appears to be without a remote possibility of solution, but there is a solution which takes longer than one column to explain. For that reason, after a weeks "breather" I am submitting a very revolutionary plan titled "Philatelic Utopia." The plan has been presented to Hugh Clark of Scott Publications, H. E. Harris of the firm of the same name and the editor of Linn's. They all agree that with polishing it is the absolute answer to the whole philatelic problem, including pricing the catalogue, but that it is so revolutionary it will meet with nothing but contempt and shouts of derision from a majority of dealers, editors and heads of philatelic societies. The only ones who will like it will be the collectors. Oh yes, dealers, editors and presidents of clubs number about 2000 in all, while the collectors are estimated at anywhere from 100,000 to 1,000,000, in the U. S. A. I wonder how much of a voice the collectors have?

There is something important about pricing stamps that many collectors forget, and that is the overhead which must be figured by the dealer before he makes a sale. Overhead consists of rent, salaries, heat, light, telephone, postage, advertising and thefts committed by collectors or bills which are never paid. A dealer is entitled to a return on his investment which runs from a few dollars to the hundreds of thousands of dollars and he is entitled to a reasonable profit for his labor. I believe that 40% will adequately cover all of the above listed items, and I will be immediately told I don't know what I'm talking about. But if an item is on sale at the U. S. post office for $1 and Gibbons sells it for $1.15 and Harris for $1.20, or if a set of Panama have a face of $8 and Harris sells it for $9 or if Newfoundland's current stamps can be sold at 20-25% over face, I believe I am safe in saying that 40% is a very good margin of profit on any deal. But the two large wholesale houses in New York operate on the theory that the sky is the limit, and the dealer in turn must add his cost of doing business and a margin of profit, and so the collector becomes the sucker.

Prices are out of line only because collectors have continued paying them. The moment collectors stopped buying stamps, prices would tumble. I don't suggest collectors stop buying. I do suggest collectors start demanding action, and I believe the plan which will start in Linn's in this column on October 19th is the start of something which philatelists could help perfect and put into force for the good of dealers, publishers, presidents, novices and experts alike. Pressure groups put pressure on only a handful of stamps. They mean too little in the whole scheme of stamps. What is important is that we need a catalogue with net prices upon which stamps can be sold at a LEGITIMATE profit. I believe Hugh Clark will go along with any legitimate, sensible plan to price his catalogue accordingly. What we don't need is a second catalogue whether it be postage stamps or air mails or anything else that the mass of collectors collect. Any second catalogue which I have seen, with the exception of those that deal with specialized collecting have been phony, whether they are published on Fifth Avenue, New York or Ploppengazzy, Ark. A stamp dealer may publish a price list at any range of price he desires, but when any firm puts out a CATALOGUE it takes more than a bank account and a prominent address to make it authoritative, and I'm not referring to Clark or Scott Publications when I write that.

I could fill a hundred columns about prices and what makes them go up or down. It wouldn't mean a thing. It won't mean anything until the bulk of collectors and especially the dealers see the light of day and begin to organize and co-operate for the good of the collectors hobby and the dealers well being and business. The next time you are tempted to take a wallop at Hugh Clark and the catalogue, remember that your criticism is only YOUR opinion and until there is organization in philately, we're just so many human beings all heading for the same goal but pulling in different directions. Even Uncle Harry Weiss, knee deep in those marvelous finds he makes in old barns, rundown sawmills and haunted houses, pokes his head through those marvelous finds of his and says "Yeah man".

Opportunity Knocks!Most of us at one time or another have watched something new appear on the market, neglected to fill our wants, and several months later, when no more were obtainable, could have kicked ourselves.
Well, here is your chance to fill your wants now at lowest prices. We have been commissioned by a large jobber to dispose of 140 Scott's #U93 2c Carmine Envelopes. Not to be confused with the ordinary albino type which is very common, each envelope has a clear cut, fully inked reproduction of the stamp on the inside of it. Must be seen to be appreciated. Through some accident, they were discovered in a group of regular envelopes purchased at the postoffice. As you can well understand, the chances of obtaining an item such as this comes very seldom. Each cover is in superb mint condition, flaps with full gum. Unfortunately, we do not acquire as spectacular an item as this very often. This being so, we would advise sending in your order immediately.
Price, per envelope only $1.75 each. Unconditional money back guarantee, of course.MINER STAMP CO.

453 Mt. Prospect Avenue Newark 4, N. J.

Elkins, West Virginia, was supposed to have an airport dedicated on Saturday, September 30th;
but at the time of writing this column I do not have any confirmation of it. However, I do have a couple of covers which were supposed to have been mailed at this dedication. These covers are not cacheted and are postmarked
at Elkins, W. Va., Sept. 30th at 11-AM. I would appreciate any information about this that any readers may be able to supply me with.The following day, Sunday, October 1st, was another big day along the East Coast for on that day, National Airlines inaugurated airmail service over the extension of AM-31 from Jacksonville, Fla., to New York City. Since I am writing this column the day after the flight took place, I do not have the full details of it.
Consequently, I am not going to write it up this week, but am going to wait until I have more details and will then devote a full column to not only the flight itself, but also the ceremonies at LaGuardia Airport (which I was fortunate enough to attend as a guest of National Airlines). However, there are two items I might mention now (1) a very beautiful and appropriate cachet was applied to all first flight covers.
This cachet was designed by Mr.
F. E. Howe; who is not only a member of National Airlines staff
but is also a very prominent cover collector. This cachet is one of the most attractive I have seen in the quite some time. (2) On the first trip from Jacksonville to New York, the plane broke all speed records between these points making the trip in 4 hours and 36 minutes. By next week,
I hope to have most of the details.On Sept. 16th, Warren, Ohio, was added to AM-1 & AM-14 as a new bracketed point served through the Youngstown (Ohio) Airport. There was no cachets used at Warren for either route.
Covers are cancelled at Warren at various times between 8-30 AM & 11-30 AM. Since this point is a bracketed point, it is beyond the scope of the American Air-mail Society Catalogue and will not be listed in that publication.
However, the West Coast Airmail
Society and the Metropolitan Air-mail Cover Club will evidently consider it a listable item and will include it in their respective listings.Again a reminder, will I be seeing you at the STAMPEX exhibition at the Robert Treat Hotel, Newark, this week-end? This is considered to be one of the largest National Stamp Exhibits to be held in the East during 1944 and I know that many readers of this column will be there. Several rare covers will be on display, of the type you don't see very often. It will be worthwhile seeing.Also, don't forget the Metropolitan Airmail Cover Club meeting
this Friday, October 13th? Regardless of whether you are a beginner or advanced cover collector, you will have plenty to gain
by attending one of their meetings. The Main Studios (4th floor), 225 West 46th Street, New York City. Will you be there? I'd like to meet you.Thanks for covers and news this week to A. Fagenson, G. F. Lancaster; B. Schnieder, J. Siegel, E.
Engelhardt, R. Bush, and others.AUSTRALIA'S SMALLEST

AN OPEN LETTER TO STEPHEN G. RICH FROM LAWRENCE W. CASE

Mr. Stephen G. Rich,
Chambers' Stamp Journal,
Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Dear Sir:

I don't know whether you have ever bothered reading my column which runs in this paper. In case you haven't had time, I have been showing up the phoney in stampdom and highlighting the outstanding personalities. I come from a poor family where we were taught respect for established positions and establishments, such as Theodore L. Chambers and Chambers' Stamp Journal. Therefore, this letter is not to be construed in anyway as a reflection about your editor or his property.

The October 2nd issue of Chambers arrived this morning and I read with great interest your ignoble attack on George W. Linn. Now you will probably wonder why George isn't answering you himself.

I should like to answer your bombastic attack. I want to say that it is highly questionable in my mind whether Major Juhl's remark was directed at my boss, even though the latter thinks it was. I think this is a very good time for Juhl to come out and make a public statement.

Next, let us take up the matter of calling this paper a "rag", for while I am sure your education never included journalism, a "rag" in newspaper parlance was a term applied to any newspaper. However, in this country we pay off on success and may I point out that in the current issues of your and my papers, my paper carried 311 inches of display advertising to your 85 inches.

Now let's cut out being polite because that is about as phoney as a man of your like demanding that laughter from the galleries be directed at a man who is trying to make an honest living by running a philatelic newspaper that dares to tell the truth, and his very desire to unearth the truth and reveal it has made enemies for him instead of friends. His father didn't pass away, leaving him a fortune with which to go about poking into other peoples business, and that is exactly what you have done, and if you want me to print some of the documents I have seen written by and against you, I'm ready to pick up the gauntlet the moment you throw it down.

As to whether George W. Linn is correct in his statements regarding the Overrun Nations and the method in which they were printed, I am sure the philatelists who know the inside of the Premier Gravure deal, in which you injected yourself, will take Linn's word for the flags before they listen to you.

If I were you I'd forget all about this mistake you have made, since it is only one of many charged against you, and settle down to what ever you do to occupy your time, because if you don't and you want to make an issue out of this I live close enough to you to meet you with documentary proof that will appear in my column, where we'll get "Down To The Point" in a hurry.

Philatelically yours,

(Signed) Lawrence W. Case.

P. S. Just got a thought. Could we call this going from "rags" to riches?"

Free French Authorized To Use U. S. Stamps

We are advised by the Rex Stamp Company of Cleveland, Ohio, with regard to the overprint "R. F." on a U. S. Airmail stamp which we mentioned some weeks ago.

This informant states that the Postal Bulletin of some months ago carried a ruling to the effect that the Free French of North Africa were permitted the use of U. S. postage stamps provided the stamps were initialed "R. F." It is therefore evident that the stamp we referred to was one of these and as such it should be of especial interest since the surcharge is authorized.

WE THOUGHT IT WAS THE NEW PHILIPPINE STAMP

"What's that peculiar odor I smell in the postoffice?"
"Probably the dead letters, madam."

Covers and Precancels

There has been through the years many attempts to tie cover collecting up with precancel collecting but with little success. The two just don't seem to jell. 'Tis true the only satisfactory way of collecting BARS is to have the things on cover and of course the Government printed envelopes should be collected entire although some few save them cut 2x4. After these two things are mentioned the whole of Cover and Precancel collecting has been covered. There are a few scattered instances such as precancels used on first class mail legitimately and the several instances where a printed Permit has been blotted out and a precancel used on a mailing piece where covers were advisable and desirable to retain. Otherwise any tie up that has been a fizzle, I remember back in the days when Bi-Centers were in use a collector got out a very nice cover commemorating a date in Western History with a nice 1c Bi-Cent Precancel on it. The cover was printed in two colors and was quite as good as many of the covers we see today. Yet nothing came of the thing. Nobody demanded that their precancels be on covers and I guess the Cover collectors were not so impressed with precancel on a nice cover either. Please understand that I am not panning the gentleman in any way for his effort, for in such a manner many constructive things have found their way into the Philatelic field as well as the commercial field and it really was a good try. Perhaps you know of a still better effort. So I do not believe that precancels are ever destined to be tied up to any great extent with Covers. Each have their interests and affections in the hearts of certain ones of our great Philatelic Hobby and we hope it will always be thus.

The name "Baron De Pompesili" is one under which Pablo frequently wrote something of an unusual nature.

THE STATE REVENOOR

Box 142
 Paso Robles, California

ALABAMA. A new eye-catching design has appeared in the Tobacco and Playing Card decals. Somewhat similar to the last design, but "Alabama" now in a straight line at top and the central map surrounded by a network design.

Tobacco—1c green, 3c red, 3 1/2c lilac rose, 10c blue, 15c carmine and 25c pale brown.

Playing Card—1c purple, 4c blue and 50c pale orange.

All are 13x16mm on green card with tan safety design, rouletted 6 1/4.

The 5c Tobacco "Hap" design came out in the 1942 type a short time ago.

The use of a 50c Tobacco stamp has been discontinued by the State.

ARKANSAS. The 15c Imported Wine decal in the "Network" design is now at hand.

The recent small 5c Cigarette stamp is now rouletted in black.

GEORGIA. The 2c Beer stamp has been issued in a design very similar to the recent product of the American Bank Note Co. This printing is by the Columbian Bank Note Company, and bears its imprint outside of the design.

Cook's signature now appears where the imprint appeared on the former stamp.

NEBRASKA McEachen is Chairman of the Liquor Board again and a new member, John F. Merdie, has been added in Chase's place.

Their signatures, along with Osterman's, are now on the following stamps: 8c Fortified Wine, 3c Light Wine, 10c and 16c Liquor. (Same designs and colors as before.)

The 27 1/2c Beer stamp recently appeared with Osterman's signature.

KNOW ABOUT STAMPS

"A HIGHWAY INTO STAMP COLLECTING"—A Book for Beginners

In this book the attempt is made to help the novice in stamp collecting on matters which puzzle new collectors most. Instead of including whatever has seemed desirable to previous writers this volume is based on EXPERIENCE with questions from new collectors as they have been met at stamp clubs, etc. This book of nearly 100 pages is "all meat"—the author has condensed the information so it will be easy to read and understand. It is handy in size and thread sewn to open up easily and lay flat. There are more than a hundred illustrations. List of Chapters: Ranging the World—The Start—Getting Stamps—Handling Your Stamps—Your Pet Collecting Field—Special Fields of Collecting—Your Most Useful Book—The More Useful Distinctions—Identifying Stamps—Exhibiting Stamps—The Books, Journals and Societies—The Money Side. Price 50c postpaid

"PHILATELIC TERMINOLOGY," stamps collectors' dictionary; over 700 words and terms defined; illustrated. Every collector needs it. Price.....25c postpaid
